

FIRE WATCH WARRANTY

attached to and forming part of Policy No. all sections.

WARRANTED that before any cutting, burning or welding commences, area of work to be clean and free of grease, oil, or other flammable material.

Further warranted that whenever cutting, burning or welding is in process, and for at least one half hour after completion, there will be in attendance at the cutting, burning or welding site, an employee equipped with and competent in the use of proper fire extinguishers and other emergency fire fighting equipment as considered necessary.

Sample